Stakes, a selling race for three-yearolds and upward, worth $2,010 to the winner, was the main event decided here this afternoon, and James R. Keene's good sprinter Delagoa won, ridden out, by a length from Clonmell. There were eight starters, with Lady Holyrood the favorite at 3 to 1, Dalagoa

Outsider Wins.

Allan was favorite in the opening event and the backing he received caused his price to tall from 2 to 1 to S to 5, notwithstanding the play on Athalana, whose price fell from 4 to 1 to

When it came to racing both were strong bid. Odem bustled him right to the front and he remained there till the lest sixteewith. Then the 12 to 1 shot. John A. Scott, joined him, and after a pretty race to the wire Scott got up in time to get the verdict by a head.

Roxane showed how good a mare she is just now by defeating a good field in the second race, for which she was an even-money favorite. She ran the mile in 1:38.3-5, bearing Runnell's time of 1:30 1-5 made yesterday.

King Hanover set a stiff pace to the famtura, where Roxane moved into the lead and took an alvantage of two. beatin, although Athalana made lead and took an advantage of two lengths. In the final furlong Cameroa closed with a rush, foreing Pedfern to ride Roxanc out in order to win by three parts of a length.

Three Heads Apart.

Speculation was lively on the fourth event, at a mile, in which Lady Sterling was a 7 to 5 favorite. Potente and Prince Richard were well played, while Hans Wagner fell from 15 to 1 to 7 to 1. Fonsoluca was played from 30 to 1 10 to I and Milas from 80 to 1 to 15 ther to the final furlong.

There was a closing up from the rear Blue, Corsica, May Me, 108. and in a pretty race Loone, a 15 to 1 Nations. The last named was poorly handled by Shea, and with perfect handling would have been an easy win-

They are in the truest and best sense of the word specialists, and for this reason information or advice from them proves most valuable and helpful. Persons suffering from Rheumatism, Sores and Ulcers, Contagious Blood Poison, Carbuncles and Boils, Scrofula, Malaria, Catarrh, Eczema, Tetter, Psoriasis, Salt Rheum, Acne, or any of the diseases originating in the blood, are invited to write us fully and freely, and our physicians will give each individual case careful and prompt attention, for which service nothing is charged. Vast numbers are taking advantage of our offer of free medical advice, and the cures are often hastened by timely suggestions received from our physicians.
